

Employment Opportunity Regular Competition

Tłıchq Government is committed to attracting and recruiting the best possible candidates for available positions. The principles of fairness, qualifications and Tłıchq citizenship guide the hiring of Tłıchq Government employees.

Job Title: Conservation Areas, Project Coordinator

Department: Culture and Lands Protection

Location: Behchokò, Northwest Territories

Job Status: Full-time, 2 Year Term

Purpose and Scope:

Tłıchq Government is the steward of 39,000 km² of Tłıchq lands, as well as traditional trails, cultural use areas, and critical habitat within the larger Mqwhì Gogha Dè Njıtlèè traditional territory. The Conservation Areas, Project Coordinator will work with conservation partners across the Northwest Territories, including other Indigenous Governments and Organizations, Territorial, and Federal Governments to conserve critical ecological and culturally sensitive areas. Tłıchq people have strong cultural ties to the land, and ensuring responsible and sustainable environmental management is of utmost importance.

Duties and Responsibilities:

Working with a collaborative and dynamic team of scientists, Elders and community members, regulatory and research staff, the Conservation Areas, Project Coordinator is responsible for advancing and coordinating the Tłıchq Government's conservation initiatives including protected area planning, project management, research and community engagement.

Education, Experience and Skills Required:

- Passion for protecting the environment, wildlife, and Indigenous well-being and way of life
- Strong communication skills, experience with community engagement, and ability to work collaboratively with a wide range of partners
- A diploma or degree in a related area combined with field work experience and conservation planning, natural resource and/or environmental management experience (equivalent education and experience may be considered)
- Strong project management skills
- A strong understanding of land and resource management, including conservation initiatives, programs, and policies
- familiarity with conducting technical reviews of conservation and protected area proposals
- experience planning or working in Indigenous protected areas is an asset.

To Apply: Submit your cover letter and resume to; hr@tlichq.ca

Closing Date: November 8, 2022

Only those applicants selected for an interview will be contacted.

Thank you for your interest in this competition.